The Call to Worship

Deacon Jeff Wright / Congregation

God, you seek us out in the dead of night

And on this bright morning; in the depths of despair

And in the valleys of worry. Holy One, you shake us from complacency.

Wrestling fear from our souls and caution from our plans.

Loving God, you draw near, as close as our breathing,

As present as the beat of our hearts

All: Loving God, you desire our attention, rejoice at our singing

And welcome our worship.

Gathering Hymn:

“Come, Thou Almighty King”

The Welcoming Prayer/God’s Greeting

Rev. Keith Tamlyn

Children's Prayer

(after which children 3rd – 8th grade leave for Sunday school)
(Children ages 3yrs - 2nd grade are attending Children and Worship in room 9)

The Call to Confession

Deacon Jeff Wright

Prayer of Confession

We come humbly before you, O Lord, confessing that we need spiritual renewal. Putting Band-Aids on the sins of our spirits will not do, Lord. We know that we need a thorough overhaul, a total reconstruction of our spirits that once came so fresh from your creative hand. Our minds need adjusting, that we may be more in tune with the truths that come from you. Our emotions need to be fine-tuned that they may repel anger and resonate with kindness. Our hearts need to throb with sincere caring and love for all of your children of whatever race, whatever social standing. Our hands and feet need to be guided into your service, O God, that we may work to solve earth's problems rather than be the creators of them. Amen.

We Respond to the Good News

(Please print your prayer request on the blue card in the pew rack and deposit in offering plate.)

The Offering

The Doxology

The Offertory Prayer

God of extravagant mercy, with hands outstretched, you have poured out wonder and pleasure and delight, goodness and beauty and bounty. So take these offerings, we pray, as our protest against all that is evil and ugly and impoverished, trivial and wretched and tyrannical, in our world and in ourselves- and thus may we and others know ourselves to be blessed. Amen.

Prayer Hymn: “Lord, Listen to Your Children Praying”

Prayers of Thanksgiving (Pastor)

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Sending Hymn: “Be Still, My Soul”
