The Call to Worship

Elder Pam Kara / Congregation

All around the world,
People rise to greet the morning and sing praise to the Creator.
All over the earth,
People hold one another up in prayer.
All around the globe,
Some cry for food, some are filled with laughter, all search for truth.
All around the world,
Hearts hear a sacred melody and yearn for peace.
Throughout this day, across many lands,
Sisters and brothers touch the bread of life and drink the cup of joy.
All around the world, people sing and we join the unending chorus of praise.

The Call to Confession

Elder Pam Kara

Prayer of Confession

We struggle to find a place of humility in our hearts, O mighty One. May you aid us in our true confession this day. You promise us love, we respond by worshipping idols. You promise us presence, we respond by attempting to control. You promise us new life, we respond by following the ways of death.

Silence

Forgive us. Teach us to be mindful of our motives. Teach us to become our true selves. Teach us to worship you, not self or possession or prestige. Teach us to be your children, living in your image of grace and love. For these are the things Jesus teaches us. And these are the very things with which we struggle. We repent, holy God. Redeem us yet again.

Silence

In the assurance of your forgiveness, we give thanks for your grace and love to us! Amen.

Communion at the Lord's Table

The Reformed Church in America supports an “open table policy” for communion. This means that all baptized adults and children who believe that Jesus Christ is their Lord and Savior are welcome to the Lord’s Table. We invite you to join us at The Lord’s Table for communion, with grape juice representing the Blood of Christ and Bread representing the Body of Christ.

* The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible; and in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds; God of God; Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made; being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us, and for our salvation, came down from heaven; and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.

He suffered, and was buried; and the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures; and ascended into heaven; and sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And He shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end. And we believe in the Holy Ghost; the Lord and Giver of Life; who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; who spoke by the Prophets.

And we believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins. And we look for the resurrection of the dead; and the life of the world to come. AMEN.

Meaning of the Sacrament

Our Savior Jesus Christ has ordained and instituted this Holy Supper to nourish and sustain those who are born again and grafted into his family: his church. Christ has instituted an earthly and visible bread as the sacrament of his body and wine (grape juice) as the sacrament of his blood.

Just as truly as we take and hold the sacraments in our hands and eat and drink them in our mouths, by which our life is then sustained, so truly we receive into our souls, for our spiritual life, the true body and true blood of Christ, our only Savior. We receive these by faith, which is the hand and mouth of our souls.

This banquet is a spiritual table at which Christ communicates himself to us with all his benefits.

By the use of this holy sacrament we are moved to a fervent love of God and our neighbors.

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Gracious and loving God, we thank you that in your love, you created for us a wonderful world. You made it a place of peace for the whole of your creation; you filled it with everything your people need. You made us in your image, to follow your way, and to live in right relationship with you and with each other.

And from the beginning, you saved us! Even when we gave up on your way of peace and justice, yours is a love that never gave up on us. And so you sent your greatest gift, the gift of your only Son Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

The Invitation

All who are baptized in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and who have expressed their love for Jesus within the fellowship of the Church are welcome to approach the table.

Come, for all things are now ready.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Blessing of the Cup

Prayer After Communion

O God, through this bread and this cup, you have made us one with you and with each other. May the unity we find at this table be a gift that we carry out into your suffering, divided world. Help us to find strength in knowing that you, the God of peace, will always be with us. Amen.

Prayer Hymn: “Take Time to Be Holy” (vs1,4)#540

Prayers of Thanksgiving (Pastor)

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
